CLICK TRAVEL AND BOOKING.COM JOIN FORCES TO BOOST SAVINGS FOR BUSINESS TRAVELLERS

Travel tech business Click Travel can now offer further discounted rates on global accommodation for business travellers, after securing a second partnership deal with Booking.com.

The new relationship expands on the previous partnership, which integrated Booking.com's exclusive accommodation rates into Click Travel's own reservation platform, by providing an additional 10% discount.

Combined with Click Travel's multiple direct connections to rail and air fares, business travellers can now consolidate all elements of their travel booking for easier invoicing and management.

With these special rates available at tens of thousands of participating Booking.com properties around the world, there are significant savings to be made. Travellers may also find themselves with more choice available, due to more hotels and other types of accommodation now potentially being within their travel policy or corporate budget.

Click Travel CEO Jill Palmer said: "Our partnership with Booking.com has gone from strength to strength over the years and we're delighted to now be able to offer our customers even greater savings on their hotel stays. We want to be able to offer our customers the widest choice possible and working with Booking.com has helped us to achieve this."

Jason Grist, Area Manager for Business Travel, UK and Northern Europe at Booking.com said: "We're constantly looking for ways to leverage our partnerships with key players in the industry to deliver more choice and value to business travellers everywhere. We're very pleased to be able to offer these special rates to Click Travel's corporate customers, making it even easier for them to find the stays that are right for them and their budgets."
