CLICK TRAVEL NAMED AS A SUNDAY TIMES BEST 100 COMPANY FOR SEVENTH YEAR RUNNING

Travel tech company Click Travel has been named as one of the Best Companies To Work For by the Sunday Times for the seventh consecutive year.

The Birmingham-based business was recognised for its approach to flexible working and the emphasis it places on wellbeing support. The company currently employs more than 230 people, with half of its team working remotely across the UK.

This year has seen Click Travel place particular focus on health and wellbeing support, offering free 24/7 employee assistance, yoga sessions, and training by Mental Health First Aiders.

Elsewhere, the company has continued to invest in its staff, launching new training and recognition schemes, as well as continuing to offer varied opportunities for progression within the business. This approach has meant Click Travel has maintained a high staff retention rate, as well as continuing to promote impressive levels of staff engagement.

Click Travel's CEO, Jill Palmer, says: "A happy, engaged workforce is essential for a business to provide outstanding customer service. Our philosophy has always been to make sure our team enjoys their work. We're proud to be a Real Living Wage employer that offers its employees the chance to truly develop outside their roles."

Click Travel celebrated a record turnover of £237 million last year, with its award-winning travel management software helping more companies than ever before to manage, control and book their business travel, all in one place.
