FRAIKIN BUILDS TOWARDS TIP-EX DEBUT

Contract hire, fleet management and rental specialist Fraikin is to make its Tip-Ex debut this June, exhibiting for the first time at the tipping and bulk haulage sector's annual trade show in Harrogate, North Yorkshire.

Fraikin will use the three-day show to demonstrate its expertise within the building, construction and waste sectors, where it has an established customer base and proven industry expertise.

The company will be challenging fleet operators to consider new strategies for reducing operating costs, maximising safety, ensuring compliance and improving environmental performance.

Colin Melvin, Sales Director at Fraikin, says: "These are fundamental issues in the industry, and particularly for those fleets running specialist time critical operations. We'll be using the show to demonstrate the changes operators can make to how they acquire and manage their fleets, which will deliver real business benefits, reduced costs and greater efficiency."

Tip-Ex 2017 takes place between 1-3 June at Harrogate Convention Centre. Fraikin will be exhibiting from stand C21, located in Hall C.
