JMC AVIATION BUILDS ON GROWTH STRATEGY WITH APPOINTMENT OF NEW COMMERCIAL DIRECTOR

Global aviation recruitment and engineering solution specialist, JMC Aviation, has underlined its commitment to growth with the appointment of Zak Milsom to the new position of Commercial Director.

With more than a decade of experience in the recruitment industry, supporting clients across a range of sectors, Milsom has been tasked with spearheading the next stage of JMC Aviation's development, expanding its customer base and increasing its international footprint.

Milsom says of his appointment: "This is a really exciting opportunity to continue the incredible success JMC Aviation has experienced so far. I look forward to leveraging my experience to drive growth, build key partnerships across the sector, and add exceptional value for our clients. I believe the success delivered in the UK, that is already pushing across Europe, will continue to be mirrored in North America and beyond as we continue to grow."

Based at the company's headquarters at Exeter Airport, he will focus on implementing strategic development across JMC Aviation's core sectors, which includes contract recruitment, direct hire, training, engineering and fixed price projects.

Hollie Prendergast, Managing Director at JMC Aviation, says: "As the aviation industry continues to soar, we're seeing increasing opportunities to deliver our full range of services to an ever-expanding global client base. Zak's appointment will directly support this growth, whilst helping ensure we are championing best-practice in everything we do. It's an exciting time for our business, and we are delighted to welcome him on board."
